

“Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests and said, ‘What are you willing to give me if I deliver Him (Jesus) to you?’ And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver.” —Matthew 26:14–15

“The governor answered and said to them, ‘Which of the two do you want me to release to you?’ They said, ‘Barabbas!’” —Matthew 27:21

“Likewise the chief priests also, mocking with the scribes and elders, said, ‘He saved others; Himself He cannot save. If He is the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him.’” —Matthew 27:41–42

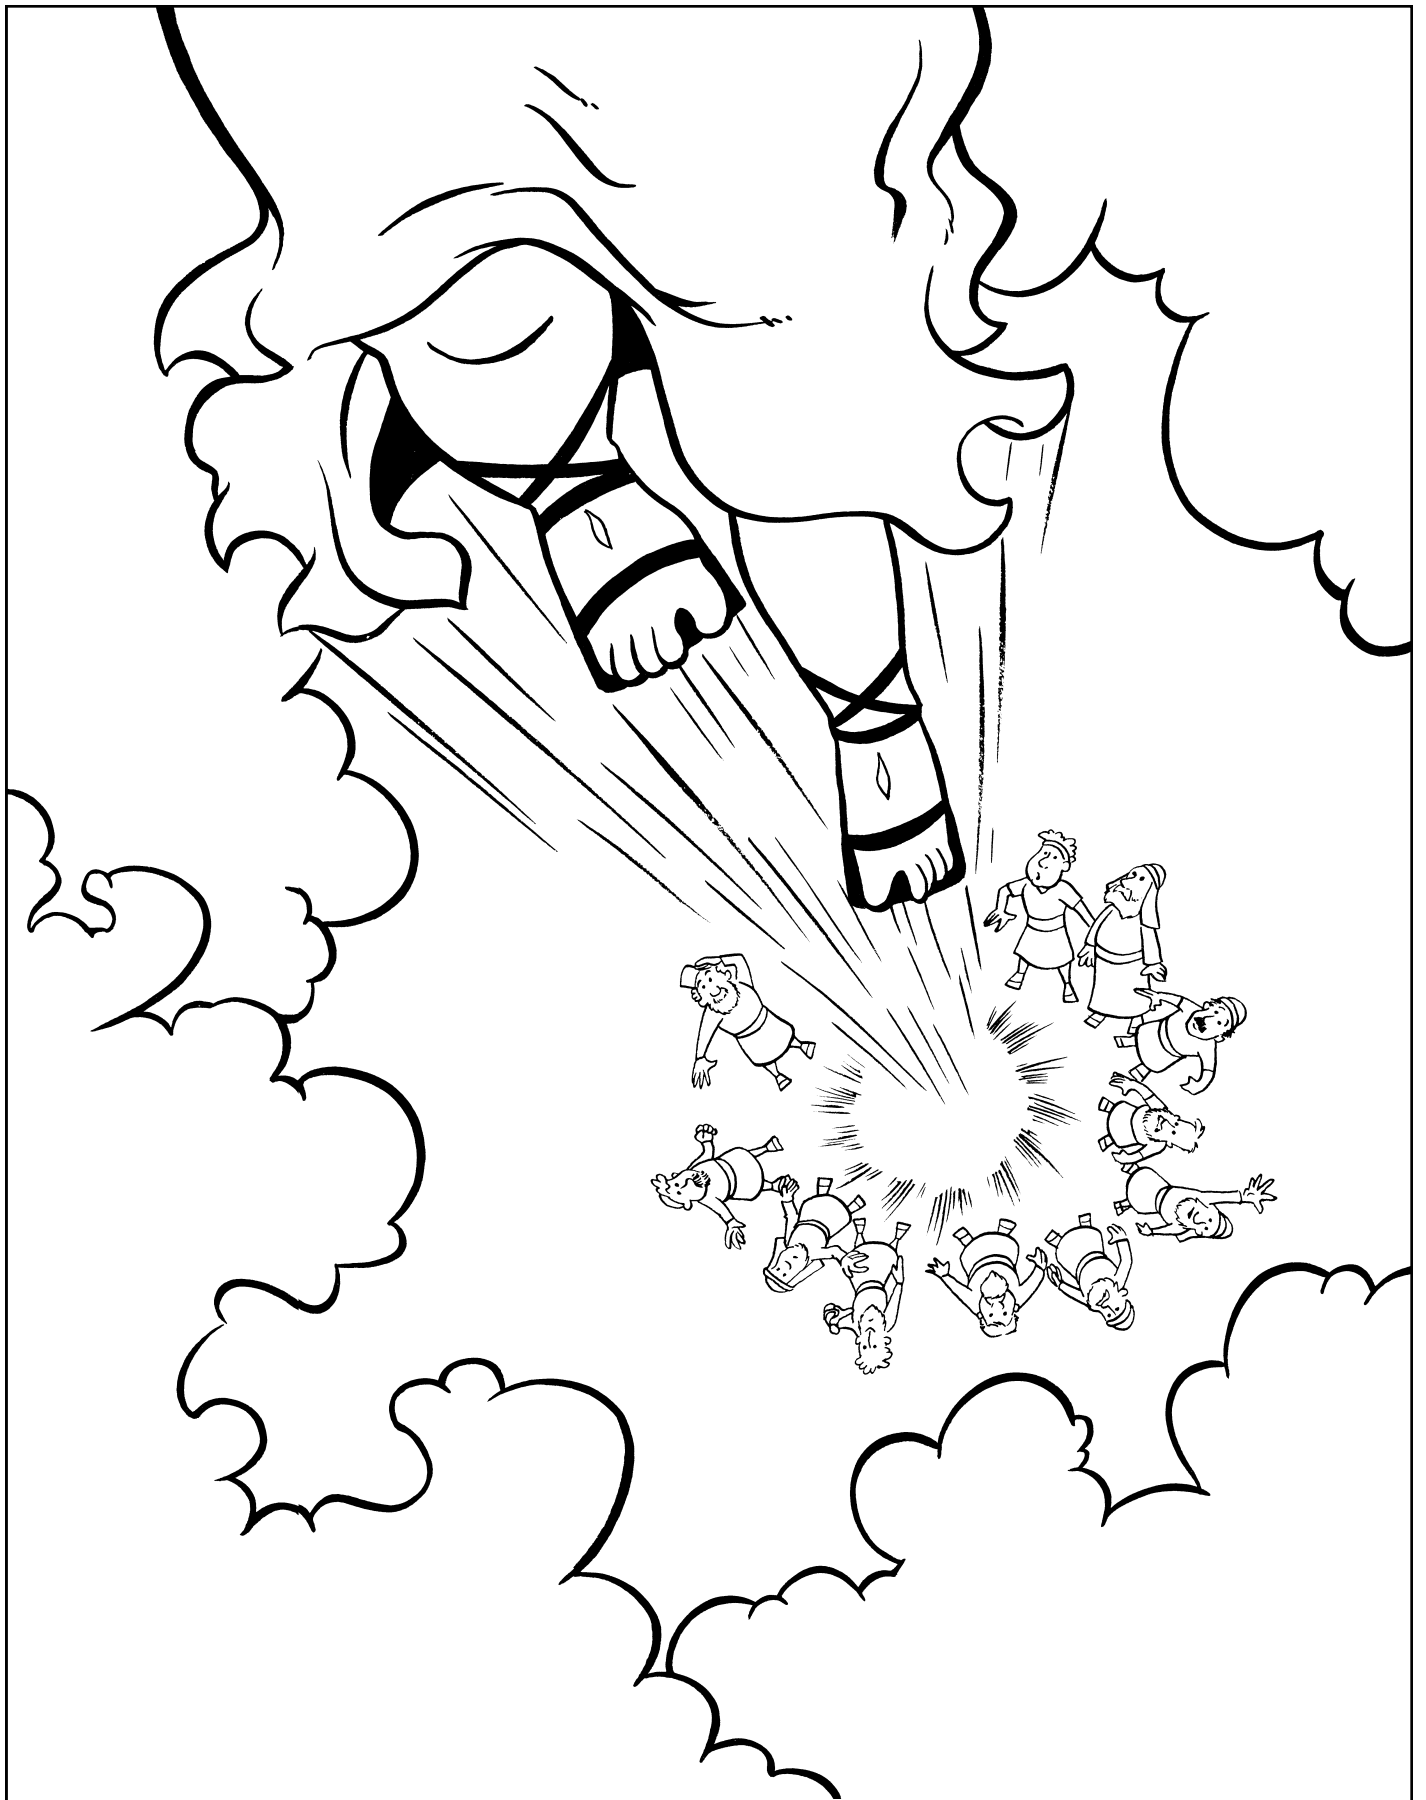

“And when Jesus had cried out with a loud voice, He said, ‘Father, into your hands I commit My spirit.’ Having said this, He breathed His last” (Luke 23:46).

“But the angel answered and said to the women, ‘Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.’” —Matthew 28:5–6

“Now on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, and certain other women with them, came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared. But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb” (Luke 24:1–2).

“Now it came to pass, while He blessed them, that He was parted from them and carried up into heaven” (Luke 24:51).
