

“Every intent of the thoughts of [man’s] heart was only evil continually”
(Genesis 6:5).

“So [God] destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air” (Genesis 7:23).

After 40 days, Noah sent out a dove from the ark to see whether the waters had receded from the earth (Gen. 8:6-12).

God set the rainbow in the cloud as a sign of His promise to never flood the earth again (Gen. 9:12-17).