

Israelites offered bread as part of the grain offering to remember God's goodness (Leviticus 2:1-9).

The priest stood before the altar and made a burnt offering for sin (Leviticus 1:3–9).